Because we are dealing with the hearts of people, the school can at times, be very intense. Personal responses to teaching and small group interaction may include, but is certainly not limited to, some of the following expressions of anger, prejudices and resentments, apprehension, anxiety, insomnia, depression, dissociation, etc. Note: If a crime is confessed in small group during the course of the school, the facilitator/leader of your small group will need to report it to the director/facilitator of the school. The director/facilitator of the school in accordance with the laws of the state, may need to report it to the authorities. Because of time restraints, all of your personal life issues may not be dealt with during the course of the school. This is a life-long process. However, we do give you the tools to pursue further healing and you may want to pursue further ministry once the school is complete. If you feel there are already significant life issues that you need addressed, ministry or counseling prior to your enrollment I the school is advisable and always beneficial. If you have been seeing a counselor, we ask that you discuss the school with your counselor and receive their approval. (Their signature is required below).
